Cuban Invaders Would Give Up Conditionally

By LUIS NOLI

PANAMA (AP) — A ban of Cuban invaders of Panama today said they would surrender only if assured they would be returned immediately to Cuba and would not be punished.

President Ernesto de la Guardia's government showed no inclination to promise more than its earlier assurance that the members of revolutionary band would not be killed.

The government looked now for guidance to a team of five Latin American ambassadors due here today. They are coming as an inspection team for the Organization of American States.

The invaders' surrender terms were relayed to the government by one of two bearded Cuban officers sent to Panama by Fidel Castro's regime to seek the surrender of the invasion force, which embarked on Cuba last week.

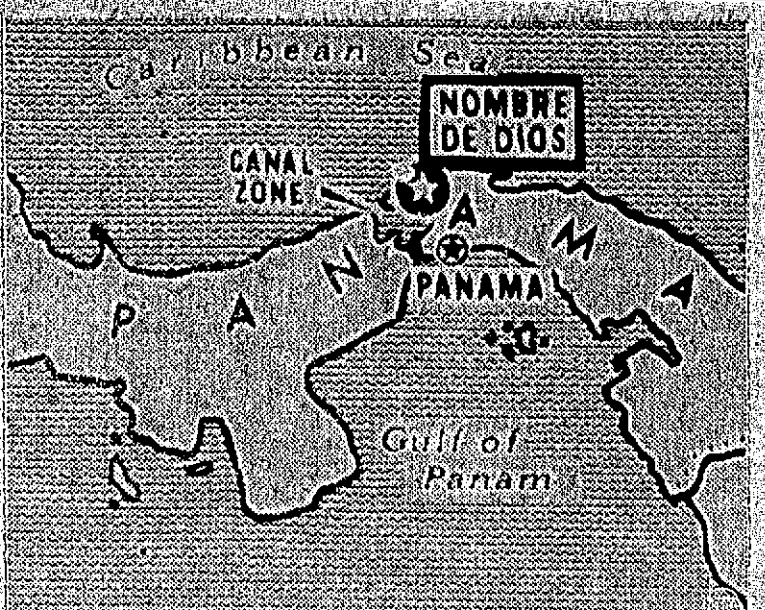

Carrying a Cuban flag, they met the hired invaders in the little town of Nombre de Dios, 50 miles north of the capital on Panama's Caribbean coast. They had halted there Monday after advancing 35 miles along the coast from the beach on which they landed early Saturday.

One of Castro's mediators, Capt. Armando Torres, hurried back to the capital, bringing with him a member of the foreign invading force. They went directly to the Cuban Embassy.

Keeping a line open with the 79 other invaders, Torres' colleague, Lt. Fernando Ruiz, remained at their camp in Nombre de Dios.

President de la Guardia said Tuesday night that two more invasion ships carrying up to 200 men were reported on their way to Panama from Cuba.

Panama's chief of government, Jose Benitez, said the country's 3,000 National Guardsmen, the nation's only defense force, have occupied strategic points and are awaiting orders which will be continued on Page Two.

FIRST FIGHT — Sizeable rebel reinforcements from Cuba were reported converging on Panama where loyal forces strengthened by U. S. arms and ammunition were fighting to encircle invaders who have seized a coastal village. A government communiqué said several invaders were killed or wounded in a clash with patrol boats lying off invader-held Nombre de Dios, 50 miles from the Panama Canal, in the first known fighting in the four-day-old invasion. — NEA Telephoto

NLB to Ask Strikers Be Restrained

CINCINNATI (AP) — The

National Labor Relations Board will ask the U. S. District Court in Lexington, Ky., Thursday for temporary order restraining the United Mine Workers Union from interfering with the mining of coal in eastern Kentucky.

John C. Gaffney, regional director of the NLRB, today announced he will take that action. A short time before he had ordered a hearing June 1 in London, Ky., on charges of unfair labor practices against the UMW.

Both the UMW headquarters in Washington and Dist. 30 are named in the charges.

A group of eastern Kentucky coal operators whose mines have been struck for nearly two months, filed the complaint against the union several weeks ago.

Youth Runs Into Auto, Not Badly Injured

Three accidents were reported by

City Police during the past 24 hours.

Yesterday near Oglesby, the young son of Coy Breeding ran into the side of an auto driven by Hendrix Spraggins. Mr. Spraggins was driving slowly and stopped almost instantly. The youth was bruised but not badly hurt. Police Chief Jack Brown said.

At Third and Hervey Streets this morning a three-vehicle accident resulted in some damage. A truck owned by Calvin Morris and driven by Horace Laefield hit W. B. Fenwick's auto which hit a Hope auto vehicle driven by Alvin Hucklebee. Both the latter vehicles were stopped according to Officer Clark. The Fenwick auto had damage to its bumper and grill.

On South Main Street an auto driven by Billy Rogers, attempted to pass another driven by Mrs. J. S. Hucklebee. An approaching auto forced Rogers to cut in too quickly and hit the Hucklebee auto causing slight damage, according to Officers Rowe and Clark.

Printer Shot to Death, Wife Held

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A

Hot Springs printing shop operator was found slain late yesterday, and his estranged wife was quoted as saying she shot him.

Joseph P. Connolly, 45, was discovered dead at the wheel of his parked station wagon.

Police said he apparently had been shot elsewhere but had been driven away in the automobile and parked in a residential driveway before slumping over dead.

Deputy Prosecutor Robert Ridgeway said that Mrs. Bonnie Connolly came to the Garland County Courthouse with her attorney and told officials that "I shot him."

Further details of the shooting were not disclosed.

Ridgeway said Mrs. Connolly was held for investigation.

Residents of the neighborhood said they saw the station wagon turn into the driveway and stop, but attached no significance to it.

Connolly was found dead in the car about an hour later. He had been shot in the chest and lower abdomen.

The place where Connolly's body was found is about a half mile from Mrs. Connolly's home.

UA Teachers to Challenge Affidavits

PAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A

University of Arkansas faculty leader says the teacher affidavits act will be challenged in the courts.

Dr. Phillip E. Trapp said yesterday a court suit would be launched soon. He said the plaintiff might be a university professor or a group formed in last the session of the Arkansas Legislature.

Trapp said he was not speaking for any recognized campus group but for "some of us who think this law is unconstitutional." He said Edwin E. Dunaway, a Little Rock lawyer, has been retained as legal adviser.

Trapp, a professor of psychology and president of the Association of the American Assn. of University professors, said faculty members of other state supported schools had expressed interest in assisting the university group in fighting the act.

Act requires all public school teachers, including college and university professors, to sign affidavits listing organizations to which they have belonged for contributed in the past five years.

The act already has been cited in a pending federal court suit filed at Little Rock by B. T. Shelton, a Negro teacher at Little Rock's Dunbar Junior High School for Negroes.

NBC Strike of Technicians Continues

NEW YORK (AP) — A strike of

1,500 technicians against the National Broadcasting Co. continued today with no agreement in sight.

The company Tuesday filed two suits totaling more than a million dollars against the National Assn. of Broadcast Employees and Technicians Union, charging that the Monday walkout violated a no-strike clause in the contract.

A $500,000 breach of contract suit was filed in U. S. District Court here. A second suit against the union was filed by NBC in Los Angeles, asking $200,000 punitive damages and $100,000 a day actual damages.

The Los Angeles suit contended the contract was violated when 425 employees struck at Hollywood and Burbank, Calif., studios Monday.

A court hearing was set for Monday on the union's petition for a court order banning picketing there.

The union has called the stoppage a "lockout." It maintains the company ordered NABET members of the premises in New York after they refused to handle a video tape of a two-hour program made in Paris. The union claims the company used some French technicians in basic jobs in making the tape, thus violating a union agreement.

NBC's radio and television networks were off the air from 7 to 9 a.m. Monday. Supervisory personnel then took over.

Land Title Assn. Names President

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Richard Greer of Fayetteville was elected president of the Arkansas Land Title Assn. yesterday at the closing session of the group's annual meeting here.

Other new officers are: Edward Maddox of Harrisburg, vice president; Mrs. Lois Howard of Hot Springs, secretary; and Marcus Hsieh Jr., of Fort Smith, treasurer.

The association named a committee to study a proposed University of Arkansas scholarship to be awarded a law or business major willing to specialize in real estate titles.

New Arts Board Gives First Exam

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The new

Arkansas Healing Arts Board gave its first examinations today for medical students and applicants for osteopathic and chiropractic licenses.

The board was established by the 1958 Legislature to replace the old Basic Science Board.

Examinations are a preliminary step toward actual licensing. The present round will continue tomorrow.

Dr. Joe Robbins of Conway, chairman of the new board, and Education Commissioner A. Felt said its ex-officio secretary supervised the examinations.

Congress Irked But Ike Still Backs Mrs. Luce

WASHINGTON (AP) — President

Eisenhower said today Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce's usefulness as ambassador to Brazil has not been damaged in any major way by her row with Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.).

The President told a news conference that he had a telephone survey made Tuesday after Mrs. Luce hit out verbally at Morse and concluded that she will be welcome in Brazil.

The Senate gave Mrs. Luce a thumbs-up vote of confidence Tuesday despite bitter opposition by Morse.

Mrs. Luce then said her troubles began when Morse was "kicked in the head by a horse." To which Morse replied that her remarks were "consistent with an old, cold pattern of emotion instability."

Some Democratic senators who had voted for confirmation of the nomination said that if they had to do it over again they would vote against her.

And Mrs. Luce's husband, Henry R. Luce of the Time-Life Corp., publishing empire, said in New York he had asked his wife to resign the ambassadorship because of the criticism.

It was against this background that Eisenhower was asked whether he thought Mrs. Luce should take up her post in Rio de Janeiro or follow the advice of her husband and offer to resign.

Eisenhower hesitated a moment and then joined in a round of laughter touched off by the way the question was put—whether he thought Mrs. Luce should obey her husband.

Eisenhower then said that although Mrs. Luce's criticism of Morse may have been ill advised, it was human.

She made the remark, the President said, in the heat of anger. But, he went on, so far as he is concerned the criticism of the Oregon senator was not meant as any disparagement of the Senate.

Then Eisenhower said he feels there has been no major impairment of Mrs. Luce's usefulness.

He also said that she had not so far offered to resign.

Even as Eisenhower was holding his news conference, Morse was telling the Senate it was true that he had checked a report "as to the mental competency" of Mrs. Luce to serve as ambassador to Brazil.

Morse said he understood there had been charges "of improper conduct" on his part in such checking on the nominee.

The senator said a newspaper man had come to his office with certain information and that on this basis he made a telephone inquiry and then dropped the subject.

There had been reports Tuesday that Morse had sought to learn whether Mrs. Luce had been under psychiatric care.

The suggestion from Luce that his wife should resign as ambassador had been pinned to what

Ministers Make Progress in Policy Talks

PARIS (AP) — The four Western foreign ministers meeting today to lay their positions before the coming East-West conference, renewed three areas of agreement in 10-day's opening sessions, an American spokesman said.

The spokesman said the sessions went smoothly, although minor areas of disagreement cropped up. He told newsmen that on the basis of progress shown today, U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Tamm may move up his departure for Washington from Saturday night to Friday night.

"In fact," the spokesman said, "we covered more ground than we expected."

The American spokesman told newsmen at a briefing session that the four-power working group of experts will meet tonight to review certain sections of their original proposals to their chiefs. The revised sections are to be ready for further discussion by the ministers when they meet Thursday.

There were no details on what sections are to be changed.

The over-all concept of the West's "package plan" will not be changed, the spokesman said. The package plan includes the Western approach to problems of Berlin, Germany and European security.

The British have been urging that a Western proposal on Berlin be separated from the other proposals to make an East-West deal possible on that divided city. It is nothing else can be achieved.

It was understood that the foreign ministers agreed today not to separate the Berlin question from the other issues, although no delegation member would say so on the record.

Warsaw Pact foreign ministers, winding up a conference in Warsaw, Poland, opposed any attempt to link up the discussions. They said the "two most urgent and important questions for Geneva were conclusion of a German peace treaty and liquidation of the military occupation of Berlin."

They were waiting a "one light here against a package deal."

U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Tamm, an ex-British Foreign Secretary, led the Western delegation. He was joined by French Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano.

Each delegation was seven strong, making a total of 28 men. Heretofore privately this morning with Couve de Murville and von Brentano.

The Soviet bloc today backed the British position with a statement that anyone trying to tie the problems of West Berlin, German unification and European security "into one knot obviously strives to hamper agreed decisions."

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and representatives of the Soviet Union's seven European satellites and Red China, meeting in Warsaw, repeated Soviet demands that (1) Berlin must be demilitarized "free city" (2) a German peace treaty must be written speedily, and (3) German reunification must be achieved by negotiations between the East and West German governments.

Little Dog Dislodged From Crevise

workers today dislodged Little Richard from his cliff crevice of nearly six days and rushed the blue lick coon hound to a hospital.

The wasted dog, fed only once throughout his ordeal, was taken from a limestone cliff six miles east of Owasso, Okla., to a veterinary hospital at Tulsa, 20 miles away.

"They're going like the devil with red lights flashing and siren sounding," an observer reported.

The ambulance in which the dog was transported is owned by Larry Wilson, Little Richard's youthful master, its co-owner.

Optimism soared early today as rescuers got within inches of the dog.

"I think it's pretty sure they'll get him out," said Bob Parkhurst, Tulsa radio KRMG reporter watching the rescue attempt. "It's just a matter of when."

He's barking now and then, although he seems a bit gory from the languishing.

The sadistic was given the weary Little Richard early today in his first human contact since he was trapped in the rocky pile last Thursday. He got it in hamburger meat fed him by Don Dillard, a tiny Owasso High School senior. The food was the hound's first since his imprisonment.

Small scale dynamiting was resumed to speed the tunneling toward the dog. Workers set off several one-pound charges to aid tolling crews of jack-hammer operators fighting the stubborn rock.

Dillard made several trips through a narrow passageway to visit Little Richard.

KCS Moves to Reduce Tax Assessment

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Kansas

City Southern Railway moved on two fronts yesterday to get its Arkansas property tax assessments lowered.

The railroad asked the state Supreme Court to rehear a request for a three million dollar reduction in its 1957 assessment and asked the state Commerce Commission to reduce its 1958 assessment from $1,193,000 to $3,991,012.

In a petition filed with the Supreme Court, KSC contended the high tribunal erred in its April 13 decision which reduced the 1957 assessment by $133,098 from the $1,330,098 set by the state Assessment Co-ordination Department.

If the errors had not been made the assessment would have been pegged at $1,439,985, the railroad said.

In a hearing before the Commerce Commission regarding the 1958 assessment, KSC recognized that it was bound by the April 13 decision unless the high court agrees to rehear the case. That is why a smaller reduction was asked in the 1958 assessment.

A Commerce Commission decision on the 1958 assessment is expected shortly. KSC's challenge of the 1957 assessment reached the courts after the commission upheld the Assessment Co-ordination Department's figures.

Judges Named to Rule on Racial Laws

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two Arkansas district judges and a Minnesota circuit judge have been assigned to a federal court panel which will hear the latest challenge to this state's anti-integration laws.

Chief Judge Archibald K. Gardner of the Eighth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis named Judges J. Smith Henley of Little Rock, John E. Miller of Fort Smith and John B. Sanborn of St. Paul, Minn., to the panel.

But no hearing date was set. The order, announced by U. S. District Clerk Grady Miller today, stemmed from a suit filed by a Negro teacher at Little Rock.

B. T. Shelton seeks to have the state's teacher affidavit law and another anti-integration measure declared invalid.

His suit attacks Act 10, the affidavit law, and Act 115, which makes it unlawful for any member of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People to be employed by the state or any school district, county or city.

Judge Gardner's order said the panel would convene to determine whether an injunction should be issued against enforcement of the acts.

Disappointed in Weakness of Senate Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President

Eisenhower called on Congress today for tightening of the Senate labor control bill at three points.

Eisenhower told his news conference that the measure passed by the Senate has very definite weaknesses.

He said he is very disappointed with it.

The President said he believes the House should write in amendments to (1) curb secondary boycott, (2) outlaw blacklisting and (3) clarify the no-man's land area where the authority of the National Labor Relations Board and that of the states is cloudy.

Eisenhower was asked if he feels it necessary to have such amendments in light of the bill of rights for work and flow labor that was voted into the Senate measure.

Eisenhower replied that as it first was offered by Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark), he thought the bill of rights proposal was a fine thing.

But he said a compromise which finally was adopted was not a real substitute for the kind of thing that should have been done.

The substitute was sponsored by Sen. Thomas Kuchel of California, the assistant Republican leader, and backed by a group of Republicans who have been regarded as friendly to organized labor.

This was Eisenhower's first Washington news conference since March 25. He dealt with these other topics.

Clare Boothe Luce, who does not believe Mrs. Luce's usefulness as ambassador to Brazil has been impaired in any major way by the "Turor" over her exchanges with Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.). The President said he had had a telephone survey made in Brazil on this point.

Hester Dulles-Eisenhower said that from the onset of John Foster Dulles' illness last February, both he and Dulles were in agreement that Christian A. Hester should be named secretary of state if it became necessary for Dulles to resign.

When Dulles was forced to resign earlier this month because of cancer, Hester, who had been serving as acting secretary, was his immediate choice for the job. The President said, provided his health was up to the burden.

Eisenhower reported his views on this matter when told there had been some speculation that Hester would resign, and that Hester's resignation had been damaged because the President waited four days to appoint him after Dulles stepped down.

Unity Could Bring Trouble to Khrushchev

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

If the West holds steadfast and united at the Geneva Foreign Ministers Conference, troublesome days may lie ahead for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

His two latest notes to the United States, coming fairly close together, hint that the U.S. Khrushchev shared up over Berlin and Germany could prove a boomerang for him.

There is a distinct possibility that last November, when Khrushchev suddenly announced his plan to end the occupation status of Berlin, the move was planned primarily as a diversion to cloak Red activities elsewhere. The announcement brought an immediate sense of crisis. A few weeks later, Khrushchev moderated his tone, saying no steps would be taken in Berlin for six months. The magic date would be May 27.

This changed the sense of crisis to a feeling of hope or wishful peaceful atmosphere. Khrushchev played heavily upon this hope. He pressed for a Summit meeting.

As the weeks rolled by, signs of division in Western ranks over the approach to the summit may have led Soviet Communists to believe that something significant might be won from the meeting.

This belief even may have developed into confidence that the pace of the world Communist movement might be stepped up. There were enticing opportunities, particularly in the Middle East.

For Khrushchev, however, the summit has to be a gamble. If he fails to win any significant concession, he may also have to apply brakes to aggressive Communist actions which do not and cannot have direct Soviet military support.

In the long run, unless Germany can be neutralized, Communist expansion will be inhibited. It can move only indirectly, and even then there is danger. The Kremlin cannot give all the support it would like to expansion efforts in such areas as the Middle East, where homegrown Reds are exhibiting growing impatience.

Facing the United States at Geneva in two weeks will be these basic considerations.

Over-all American policy is keyed to world peace. With this fundamental goal in mind, stability is promoted wherever possible.

Soviet policy aims at steady expansion of Communist domination. To make this possible, Communists promote instability wherever they can. Communists clearly believe they can dominate large world areas after a steady roll back of Western influence, at relatively small cost and without risk ing total war. Significant concessions to Khrushchev's threats now would be a victory for him and perhaps a prelude to more threats and more demands.

Khrushchev himself has been having some setbacks. His Middle East experiments have aroused a widespread Arab antiCommunist campaign. He has had trouble with Tito of Yugoslavia, trouble with the satellites, trouble with China, trouble with deviations in the world Communist movement.

A Plymouth V-8 has once again proved that it can give better gasoline economy than either the Ford or Chevrolet V-8s! For the third straight year, a Plymouth won its class in the Mobilgas Economy Run—America's recognized competitive test for economy. The 1959 Plymouth's big standard V-8 scored 21.15 miles per gallon.

And Plymouth's "Two-Mile Try-Out" proves the difference. Drive a Plymouth! Prove to yourself that it gives you the Big Difference. Ask a Plymouth salesman for price comparisons of Plymouth and the other low-price cars. You'll find you don't pay for Plymouth's Big Difference.

Enlargement From New Polaroid Type 53 Film

Wreck Injuries Fatal to Woman

HARRISON, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. Howard Grant, 40, of Mountain Home, died in a Harrison hospital yesterday of injuries she suffered in a two-car accident Sunday.

Sheriff Jack Gregory said the wreck occurred when John B.

Newest product in the photographic world is a 4x5 film-print packet by the Polaroid Land Corp. which is used in Speed Graphic professional cameras instead of the usual two-film holder.

The packet gives the customary Polaroid 60-second print in one size larger—4x5 instead of 3x4—but also includes a genuine negative which can be used in making enlargements in the standard photo darkroom process.

The Star's editor made the above photo of the new First National Bank building now nearing completion at Second and Walnut Sts. last Friday afternoon with the new Polaroid Type 53 film, using a 90-degree wide-angle lens on a Speed Graphic.

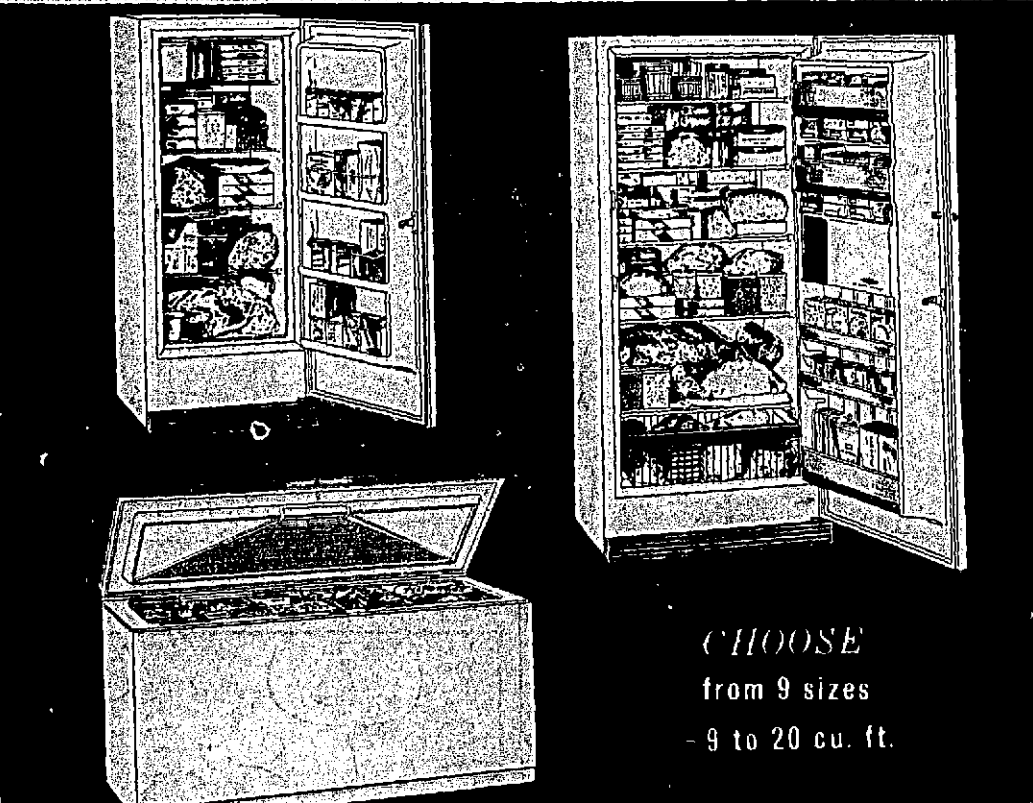

At lower right in the picture is the original 60-second print, 5 inches wide (but cropped at top and bottom), while the enlarged picture was made from the companion negative in the Polaroid packet.

Polaroid offers the same 4x5 print size without any negative, as Type 52—the reason being that if you want to develop Type 53 and preserve the negative the packet has to be removed from the camera without processing the print and taken to a photo darkroom where print and negative are developed without light, which would damage the negative.

Hargraves, 73, of Mountain Home, drove his car into the path of Mrs. Grant's car while attempting a left turn on State Highway 5 about four miles north of Mountain Home.

Mrs. Grant's four children, riding with her, received minor injuries. Hargraves was reported in serious condition at a hospital here with a broken leg and chest injuries.

Money Voted to Be Under the Budget

By STEERING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson today told the U.S. Chamber of Commerce that Congress will appropriate less than the 77 billion dollars budgeted by President Eisenhower for the coming fiscal year.

"I believe in a balanced budget," Johnson said in an address to the 2,000 businessmen at the chamber's 47th annual meeting here.

His words were applauded warmly. When questioned by reporters later, Johnson said his words didn't mean he was forecasting a balanced budget in fiscal 1960, beginning July 1.

"We may not raise all the money the President wants us to raise," he explained, "but we'll appropriate less than he has asked us to spend."

The budget Eisenhower sent to Congress in January, as balanced called for an increase in the tax on highway fuels and higher postal rates.

Johnson told the chamber that since 1955 Congress has cut every presidential budget for a total decrease in appropriations of $10,000,000,000.

"I predict that this congress will be no exception," he added. Johnson said Democrats and Republicans alike have a stake in a sound economy and a balanced budget. "A balanced budget is not a partisan issue, except in the headlines."

But there is more to blinding the budget than just making savings, Johnson said.

"It involves bold and imaginative action to increase the wealth of America," he continued. "It involves prudent steps to release the full productive capacity of the country and to convert resources now wasted into positive assets."

"One of these resources is the productive ability of 4 1/2 million unemployed men and women. I believe we should use our efforts to find them jobs in private industry, not in a government dole."

"And above all, I believe we must dedicate ourselves to the realization that our free enterprise system is locked in the struggle with an enemy not within our country, but without."

Johnson said Soviet trade missions "honeycomb the world," and the impact of the economic cold war already is being felt.

HE KNOWS HIS RIGHTS

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Election Board Secretary John Bumgarner said a citizen who had returned to his office for the third time to correct a minor provision of the law preventing him from voting protested strongly. The man asserted the Constitution gave him the right to vote, to which the secretary said, "And the Bill of Rights gives you free speech, too." Replied the citizen: "That's all I'm getting, lots of talk."
